

My Patching Story

Today your class is going to learn a little about patching with Truffles! You get to choose if you want to share your own patching journey and how much you want to share. There is no right or wrong choice. Pick the one that feels best to you:

☐ I want to share my story

I'm okay with my classmates knowing that I wear an eye patch. I can tell them about my patching journey myself, or my teacher/parent can help me tell it.

☐ I want Truffles to share a Furriend's story instead

I would rather keep my own patching journey private. My teacher/parent can read the enclosed Collector Card about one of Truffles' other Furriends who patches.

☐ I'm not sure yet (That's okay too!)

I can decide what I want to do when it's time for the party.

One more thing...

Even if you choose to share your story, you can decide how much you want to say — and you can change your mind at any time. Your story belongs to you!
